

I have read the letter dated October 16, 2007 written by Dr. Sandra Sirrs to Mr. William Baker, CEO of the CRA. I support the proposal outlined in that letter that the CRA allow patients who require low protein products as part of their nutritional therapy for inborn errors of metabolism to claim the incremental cost of those products as a medical expense.

---

Signature

---

Name (please print)

---

Address/Affiliation

---

Date